

I am against more media consolidation. We need media diversity to serve the public not media that fits the agenda of large media empires. I hope that on June 2nd that the current ownership rules will be retained. Deborah Kovalchik